

Freedom of speech is fundamental to a free society.

The Andrew Bolt case shows freedom of speech in Australia is under threat.
It is alarming that in 2011 someone can be taken to court for expressing an opinion.

Debate is fuel for democracy

It is a mark of how modern life has eroded the great Australian tradition of a fair go for any and every opinion that the Institute of Public Affairs felt the need to run a forum on free speech. In

(The Australian, 21 June 2011)

We support freedom of speech for Andrew Bolt and every Australian.

YOUR NAME HERE

Visit www.ipa.org.au for our research and commentary about freedom of speech

Authorised by John Roskam, Executive Director, Institute of Public Affairs. Level 2, 410 Collins Street, Melbourne 3000